

Happy 2nd anniversary to Marie-Vincent in Montérégie !

Since our inauguration, we have made great strides in providing specialized support to a growing number of young people and families. Marie-Vincent's presence in Montérégie is a pillar, being the only organization to offer specialized services to young victims of sexual violence.

"Two years already! Since then, we've expanded our service offering through key partnerships and a dedicated team of professionals. We are determined to participate in regional initiatives and consolidate our existing partnerships by leveraging the complementary nature of our services under one roof."

Sonia Lessard
Centre director

"Our team is proud of how far we've come and we pursue our mission with boldness and compassion, offering every youth who has been through the unimaginable the support they need to find hope again."

New! Since November 2023, we have launched a pilot project to improve access to our center via taxi transportation.

Since the fall of 2023, we expanded access to the rooms used for investigative police interviews to three days per week for our regional partners.

Our challenges

Funding of our services

Financial support from the Quebec and Canadian governments, as well as from five visionary donors, enabled Marie-Vincent to open its second centre and improve access to services for over 100 young victims.

As we enter our third year in the Montérégie region, we need to secure funding to ensure our presence in Châteauguay.

To achieve this, we must forge strong links with regional partners. We're already working with the various organizations involved in youth protection in the region, but we also need to create connections with organizations playing a socioeconomic role in the Montérégie area, particularly with a view to philanthropic development

We will continue our efforts to explore new funding opportunities and strengthen our strategic partnerships to ensure the sustainability of our services and meet the growing needs of young victims in the community.
